WIND DIRECTION AND SPEED

MARCH

Graphs represent the objective compilation of available data for specified areas without regard to suspected biases.

The isopleth analyses (opposite page) are based on all available data subjectively adjusted where bias was evident.